Dear Mr. Skelton:

BY TELECOPIER

As I indicated to you on the telephone this afternoon I would do, I have located a copy of the revised Memorandum for Recording which I sent to Mr. Duskin on March 8th. I spoke with Mr. Duskin after my telephone conversation with you, and he tells me that, except for the addition of two lines to facilitate attestation by two witnesses, my revised version was approved by Amselco. The present whereabouts of the Memorandum, as signed in behalf of Amselco, is uncertain. While efforts are being made to find out where it is, and to get it signed on behalf of Mead and Scott and into your hands prior to the closing, which you anticipate on Thursday, in which case it would be well to record the Memorandum prior to any recording of the exchange documents, I am not certain we will be able to manage that. So I think you can and probably should use the enclosed version of the Memorandum to reflect the existence of the Amselco contract in your exchange documents.

As I learn more, I will keep you timely advised.

Very truly yours,

Don H. Sherwood
